5. How we use and share your information

(a) Credit reference and fraud prevention agencies

We may request information about you from credit reference agencies to help verify your identity to comply with laws that apply to us. This request will not affect your ability to obtain credit (for example for a loan or credit card) in the future.

In order to prevent and detect fraud, the information provided in this application will be shared with fraud prevention agencies. If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified or suspected, details will be recorded with these agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering.

If we, or a fraud prevention agency, determine that you pose a fraud or money laundering risk, we may refuse to provide the services and financing to you.

When credit reference and fraud prevention agencies process your information, they do so on the basis that they have a legitimate interest in preventing fraud and money laundering, to protect their business and to comply with laws that apply to them.

(b) With other RBS companies

We and other RBS companies worldwide will use the information you supply in this application (and any information we or other RBS companies may already hold about you) in connection with processing your application and assess your suitability for our products.

If your application is declined we will normally keep your information for up to 6 years (or 10 years in Jersey), but we may keep it for longer if required by us or other RBS companies in order to comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

We and other RBS companies may use your information in order to improve the relevance of our products and marketing.

(c) With other Third Parties

The information provided in this application may be used for compliance with legal and regulatory screening requirements, including confirming your eligibility to hold a UK bank account and sanctions screening.

We may be required to disclose certain information to regulators, tax authorities, government bodies and similar organisations around the world, including the name, address, tax number, account number(s), total gross amount of interest paid or credited to the account and the balance or value of the account(s) of our customers.

6. Confirming your agreement

To enable us to complete our due diligence enquiries and release the funds held, this form must be signed in accordance with the last mandate held by the bank. We will use the information supplied on this form for the purposes of checking identity and to undertake money laundering checks. We may obtain information about any directors, beneficial owners, and other parties identified in this form from RBS Group records and other third parties.

For details of how we and others will use your information, please refer to our Privacy Notice available at rbsinternational.com/privacynotice or ask your usual contact at the Bank.

When we use and share personal and financial information, we do so on the basis that we have a legitimate interest to prevent fraud and money laundering, to manage our risk and to protect our business and to comply with laws that apply to us (including verifying your identity and assessing the suitability of our products).

By signing below you confirm that:

- The details provided are correct; and
- You will notify any third parties named in the form that their information will be used in the way described at the start of the form.
